

International Homicide Investigators Association Basic Homicide Investigation Course

The IHIA is conducting a Basic Homicide Investigators Course co-sponsored by the Murfreesboro Police Department, Federal Bureau of Investigation, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, and the Regional Organized Crime Information Center.

This internationally recognized 5 day/40 hour course of instruction is scheduled for Monday, August 26 - Friday, August 30, 2019, at the Murfreesboro Police Department's Training Center at 1004 N. Highland Ave. in Murfreesboro, TN.

You may register at www.ihia.org. Space is limited for this class, so please register early if you plan to attend.

Topics Include:

- Responsibilities of the Homicide Investigator
- Crime Scene Analysis
- Crime Scene Processing
- Investigative Resources & Techniques
- Interview & Interrogation
- Victimology
- Case Management
- Media Relations
- Stress Management
- Duties of the First Responder
- Homicide Types & Offender Motivation
- Role of the Coroner/Medical Examiner
- Serial Murder
- Suspect Development
- Ethics
- Documentation & Report Writing
- Prosecution & Legal Matters

WHO SHOULD ATTEND? Any Detective, Investigator, Crime Scene Technician, Coroner/Medical Examiner's Office Investigator, Prosecutor or First Responder tasked with investigating homicides or other violent crime.

The Cost of this course is $350.00 per student, which includes all instructional materials, a one-year membership in the IHIA, Certificates, ID card and daily refreshments.

* SPECIAL GROUP RATE – Every individual department/agency registering 3 paid students will receive a 4th FULL TUITION FREE!!

For anyone traveling or interested in overnight accommodations, please contact the Residence Inn Nashville SE/Murfreesboro at (615) 225-9250. Mention IHIA to receive the special IHIA Room Rate of $134.00 + tax per night.

For questions, please contact Lt. David Lebid with the Lee County Sheriff's Office at (239) 322-2001 or dlebid@sheriffleefl.org.