

Forensic Investigative Genetic Genealogy & the United Kingdom – Landscape & Opportunities

IHIA and the Kent Police Department will host a one-day Forensic Investigative Genetic Genealogy Seminar in Kent, England.

Join us for this FREE training summit

for LAW ENFORCEMENT/POLICE FORCE INVESTIGATORS and FORENSIC LABORATORY/SCIENTIST CONTRACTORS with Police Forces

A presentation from the Investigator and Prosecutor from California, who will present the GSK (Golden State Killer) serial killer case, where Forensic Investigative Genetic Genealogy (FIGG) was successfully used to arrest and convict the infamous rapist and serial killer. Other presenters will show how FIGG works and how it can be effective in the United Kingdom.

June 13, 2023 | 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Kent Police Headquarters
Kent Police College – Lecture Theater

Coverdale Avenue - Maidstone, ME 15 9DR
Kent, United Kingdom

REGISTER HERE

For questions, please contact:

IHIA Association Manager, Steve Lewis – slewis@ihia.org, 540-898-7898

IHIA International Director, David Gaylor – dgaylor@ihia.org,

+44 7595 388858 (Local UK contact) or visit IHIA.org

AGENDA

The Investigation and Prosecution of the Golden State Killer – the dawn of a new era in crime fighting and the future for the police and forensic community

Anne Marie Schubert | Retired Sacramento County District Attorney

Paul Holes | Retired Cold Case Investigator Contra Costa DA's Office, Retired Chief of Forensic Service Contra Costa Sheriff's Office

FIGG in Action and Training for Law Enforcement and the Forensic Community

Claire Glynn, Ph.D | Director of Online FIGG Certificate Program, University of New Haven Henry C. Lee College

Lunch: 12:00 - 1:15

FIGG and DNA in Denmark: from Cold Cases to Citizens Proposal, and Long-term solutions

Martin Wittrup Enggaard | Cold Case Homicide Investigator, Copenhagen Police

Kinship Testing, FIGG & the Future - A Practitioner's Prospective

Denise Syndercombe Court, Ph.D. | Professor of Forensic Genetics at King's College London

Making DNA Work For You

Nicola Oldroyd-Clark | Senior Director, Commercial Operations, HID and Forensics, QIAGEN

Join the IHIA
($50 membership fee)
& attend the Summit

FREE